

Sue's Cold Cap Journey
Me shortly before I was diagnosed.

Diagnosed with stage 1 breast cancer on December 19, 2016.
First chemo on February 9th, 2017. I love my hair and didn't want to lose it. Annapurna saved my hair!

February 25, 2017

17 days after 1st chemo. This is approximately when I would have lost my hair had I not used cold caps.

May 11, 2017

Just starting to notice new hair growing! Yay!

May 13, 2017

Just washed and very tangled. Miss my conditioner!

May 24, 2017

Hair starting to feel thin but no bare spots!

June 8, 2017

Eights weeks post chemo and just about at the end of shedding. I still have a full head of hair thanks to Annapurna. My protected hair grew almost three inches since February!
